Sydney Airport launches new iPhone app and official Facebook page

- New Sydney Airport iPhone app with up-to-the-minute flight information
- Free download from the App Store
- New official Sydney Airport Facebook page – “like” us and win a trip to Hawaii

Passengers will be able to check flight schedules, get real-time arrival and departure updates and information about visiting Sydney Airport with a new iPhone app and Sydney Airport’s official Facebook page being launched today.

“We want to make it easier for the 36 million passengers that use the airport every year and this app will mean all the information is at your fingertips,” Sydney Airport chief executive Kerrie Mather said.

“Sydney Airport’s iPhone app is fed directly by our Flight Information Display System, so checking departure and arrival information will be as if you’re looking at one of the departures and arrivals boards in the terminals.

“If you’re catching a flight from T1 International or T2 Domestic, find out what check-in counter to go to before you go to the airport, or if you’re picking up a loved one from the airport, now you can subscribe to a flight and get an alert pushed to your phone the moment the plane lands.

“Christmas and New Year is the busiest time of year for Sydney Airport as people travel to spend time with their families over the break and we would love as many people as possible to download the app.

“Information on getting to and from the airport, public transport, parking – including great value weekender deals – terminal maps and a full directory of the great range of shopping and eating options are also on the app, so you can plan and make the most of your airport visit.

“Whether you’re buying last-minute gifts before boarding your flight, ordering duty free online for pick-up once you’re at the airport or want to know where to go for a drink or something to eat, the app and our website should be your first port of call.

Meanwhile, passengers can keep up to date with what’s happening, current news and offers by visiting Sydney Airport’s official Facebook page.

Sydney Airport completed a $500 million upgrade of the International terminal last year and recently announced that a new four-star hotel would be built opposite the terminal next year.

"We are constantly improving facilities for everyone who uses the airport and our iPhone app and new Facebook page give passengers and meeters and greeters all the information they need," Ms Mather said.

"We recently revamped the Sydney Airport website and free wifi is available throughout T1 and T2, making Sydney Airport one of Australia's most connected airports.
